

family molding

you spoke

Innovative solutions for producing different parts within the same tool.

we delivered

- Technical services including family mold flow analysis
- Advanced manifold design that can incorporate the necessary “artificial balancing” or asymmetrical configurations
- A broad selection of standard and specialty gating methods for even the most demanding part application
- Runner design customized for optimal part filling
- Optional sequential valve controller available with the TempMaster-Series™ allows for precise filling control

